Chapter 1 by US spartan

There he was, newspaper and all, but something was different. He did not move, he did not look, he did not breath because he was dead. They saw him, but did not care, because they were almost as dead as him. They were The R.I.S.E.

The R.I.S.E is an extremely deadly chemical weapon that was transferred by bite. The R.I.S.E was made by the U.S.A. and Russia to kill off the population. Earth did not have the capacity to hold over 100 billion people. The infected hunt in packs and they are still alive yet only slightly. They survive off of human flesh, unused body fat, and eventually their own muscles. The affects are extremely zombie like so, stay away or have a big group and lots of guns, armor, transportation.
